THE A LIST

Ten programs generating advanced buzz going into this year's event

BY KEVIN CASSIDY

Drop the Beat

This drama about two college students trying to launch a campus radio program features hip-hop music and culture and is the first North American dramatic series to allow viewers to access the show's Web site via on-screen links. Distributed internationally by Alliance Atlantis (Stand G3.14)

Randall & Hopkirk (Deceased)

A quirky, imaginative comedy-drama, based on the '70s British cult series, that blends state-of-the-art special effects and humor to chronicle the adventures of a lovesick detective who is assisted with cases by the ghost of his dead partner. Distributed internationally by Universal International (Stand H4.05)

The Great Gatsby

Oscar-winner Mira Sorvino stars as Daisy Buchanan in this adaptation of F. Scott Fitzgerald's classic novel about the tragic love of a wealthy, would-be aristocrat during the height of the 1920s Jazz Age. International Sales by Granada Media International (Stand AO.01)

Gold Rush

This penetrating documentary series examines how money, fame and power have affected the intensely competitive world of international athletics. Distributed internationally by ZDF (Stand 21.02-23.01)
